Christmas Decorations in Stained Glass

with Victoria Littlehales

SATURDAY 1st DECEMBER 2018

10.00am-4.00pm

£45 (small charge for extra materials)

Victoria Littlehales

Victoria has an Art School background with a degree in Metalwork and Jewellery. She taught Art at Secondary and A level but in recent years has taught within Adult Education in various community settings. She has a passion for colour and stained glass and makes traditional lead work commissions for doors and windows together with pieces that form a series of contemporary, stylized motifs, such as hearts, stars, birds, flowers, often created in a patchwork of colours and textures, and often incorporating fused glass, vintage glass and beads, wire, ribbon and found objects.

The workshop

In this one day workshop we will be working in foiling techniques and making handcrafted, decorative items for Christmas.

Victoria will explain how to create your own design, cut glass, grind and finish the edges, apply the foil, solder and finish your pieces enabling you to create your own stunning pieces of art!

What to bring

Victoria will bring along all materials to get people started with a small extra charge for materials used.

WARNING....It's very addictive....!!!
