Josie Brown

Josie Brown HSDAD, Cert Ed., is a professional calligrapher, heraldic artist & illuminator, carrying out commissions for the private, academic and military sectors. She enjoys taking natural materials together with ancient techniques and using them in a contemporary manner. She has a particular passion for gilding and making books.

The Workshop

This workshop will introduce the highly popular 'Modern Script' which is currently being used on wine labels, wedding stationery, journals, greetings cards, pub blackboards, and suchlike. It's quick to learn, fun to do and fabulous for all sorts of occasions and gifts. We will explore colourful and metallic mediums to write with, using those on greetings cards, gift boxes or little folded books.

What to bring

- Layout paper or cartridge paper
- Pencils, sharpener, rubber, ruler (a selection is at the centre)
- Inks, watercolour or gouache paints (only if you have them)

Josie will bring the following items for people to use and/or buy at cost if you don't already have them:

- Pen holders
- Pointed nibs

What's provided

- A selection of drawing materials including pencils, sharpeners etc
- Craft knife, Stanley knife or scissors
- Drawing boards
- Tea/Coffee/Biscuits

Don't forget to bring lunch!
