Kathryn Wickson

I grew up on a Warwickshire farm and my watercolours are inspired by nature, in particular flowers, hedgerows and rural landscapes. My paintings are full of colour, and my interest lies, not just with the flowers, but in the abstract textures and shapes formed by the surrounding foliage. I studied art to A-Level and in the 1980s then attended Art College gaining a Diploma in Painting and Print Making.

The Course

Over the two days we will cover basic techniques including washes, layering, colour mixing, wet on dry, wet in wet. We will also work on step-by-step mini projects painting fruit, flowers, skies, trees and landscapes.

Everyone can paint!! – come along, gain confidence and have some fun with watercolour!
